

WESTPAC DOWNLOAD INSTRUCTIONS

The main content area has a red header bar with "Account Information" on the left and "19 April 2011 15:35 AEST" on the right. Below the header are three tabs: "Transaction List", "eStatement", and "Export" (marked with a yellow circle '2'). A "Help" icon is also present. The "Export" section contains the following text: "For improved financial management, download your transactions directly into your financial management software. Only transactions appearing in the transaction list can be exported. We recommend you export at least quarterly to avoid gaps in your exported data."

The export configuration options are as follows:

- Account: EVERYDAY (dropdown menu)
- Select Date Range: 1 (dropdown), Apr (dropdown), 2011 (dropdown) to 18 (dropdown), Apr (dropdown), 2011 (dropdown). Below this is the instruction: "Select oldest date followed by most recent date".
- Software: Excel (dropdown menu)
- or
- Date format: dd/mm/ccyy (dropdown menu)
- File format: Comma Separated File (CSV) (dropdown menu)

At the bottom of the configuration area is a "Download Now" button (marked with a yellow circle '3').

On the left side of the interface, there is a "Banking menu" with the following categories and items:

- Account Services: Accounts (marked with a yellow circle '1'), Transfer Funds, Loan Withdrawal
- Payments: BPAY, BPAY View, Pay Anyone, Bank Cheque, Overseas, Tax, Periodic, Pending
- Manage...: Your Accounts, Your Details, Your Daily Limit
